Stops along the way

Morning tea at the picturesque Brooklyn the lower estuarine reaches of the Hawkesbury River or take the scenic passage on along the Wollemi Rd or stop for some Animal Fun at the Australian Walkabout Wildlife park.

At the Hunter Valley

The Hunter Valley excels at Semillon and Shiraz and has some reasonable Chardonnay and Verdelho. Other popular wines are served from other wineries of Australia. We visit some of the most award-winning vineyards in the area. Recommended Wine tasting at Pepper Tree Winery - Hungerford Hill – Audrey Wilkinson -Tyrells -Thomas Wines – The Cockfighters Ghost. Other non-winery destinations can be visited like the Smelly Cheese shop, Hunter Valley Chocolates, The Distillery, Local Markets and the Hunter Valley gardens. In the late afternoon Wild Kangaroos may be spotted along the roadside's farms and vineyards. Lunch favourites are Café Enzo, The Hunter Valley Resort, Muse, Hungerford Hill, The Twine restaurant.
