Experience the diversity of beaches, valleys and wineries all in one day.

- Australia's first National Park
- Quiet Seaside Restaurants, Cafe's
- Seacliff Drive, Kiama blowhole
- Fitzroy falls, the Kangaroo Valley

Starting from The Royal National Park near Sydney, this route follows the exquisite southern coastline. Discover the Seabridge, Kiama, the Kangaroo Valley and the Southern Highlands.

The Grand Pacific Drive follows the winding NSW South Coast, we lead you on a beautiful journey covering the Royal National Park, Shellharbour. Visit the Kiama Blowhole which spays seawater all over the rocky surrounds.

Spend the afternoon along the coast via wineries, quiet secluded beaches and seaside villages or discover the Kangaroo Valley which offers, rich green pastures, sparkling creeks and rivers along with the lush rainforest guarded by magnificent sandstone escarpments to welcome you along the way.

The South coast and Kangaroo Valley and the Southern Highlands offer some of the best coastal, valley and highland scenery in New South Wales.
